BRITANSKO-JUGOSLAVENSKO UDRUŽENJE PRAVNIKA

Uz podršku Odvjetničke komore Londona u prosincu prošle godine osnovano je u Londonu Britansko-jugoslavensko udruženje pravnika.

Svrha je Udruženja unaprijeđivati i potpomagati strukovne odnose između pravnika Velike Britanije i Jugoslavije te postići što veći stupanj razumijevanja dvaju pravnih sistema. U tom smislu Udruženje namjerava održati radne seminare u Engleskoj i Jugoslaviji te organizirati razmjene pravnika između tih dviju zemalja gdje to bude bilo moguće.

Udruženje je osnovalo i svoj upravni odbor, a namjera mu je održati svoj prvi sastanak u punom članstvu krajem lipnja ili srpnja ove godine u Londonu.

Svi pravnici i oni koji se to spremaju biti pozivaju se da se učlane u ovo Udruženje čiji je sekretar Michael Wood (alternativno Zoran Tasić) iz Stephenson Harwood (solicitors) One St. Paul's Churchyard, London EC4M 8SH (telefon: 071-329-4422; telefax: 071-606-0822).

BRITISH-YUGOSLAV LAW ASSOCIATION

Following a reception at the Law Society (equivalent to Bar Association) in London, England, in December 1990, there has now been established the British-Yugoslav Law Association.

The objects of the Association are to encourage and assist professional relations between lawyers in the United Kingdom and lawyers in Yugoslavia and to promote better understanding of the legal systems of the two countries. To do this, the Association intends to hold conferences and workshops in both countries and to arrange exchanges and placements of lawyers, where appropriate.

The Committee of the Association is established and it is hoped that the Association will hold its first full meeting in June or July 1991 in London.

All lawyers and trainee lawyers are invited to join the Association whose Secretary, in London, is Michael Wood (alternatively Zoran Tasić) of Stephenson Harwood, One St. Paul's Churchyard, London EC4M 8SH (telephone 071-329 4422/telefax 071-606 0822).
